

My dearest...

Name _____

Class _____ Date _____

Write a letter to a loved one from whom you are separated because of war.

A. You are waiting at home, writing to someone at the battlefield.

- What do you think he would like to know about?
- Would you talk about your fears and loneliness? Why/why not?

Or

B. You have gone away to war and are now writing back home.

- Describe what you are doing, and how you are feeling.
- Would you be honest about your situation? Why/why not?
- Remember to be careful not to say anything that would help the enemy, should your letter fall into the wrong hands.
