

What is it?

Chose three items from the Memorial Box that are not familiar to you.

- Look carefully at the features of each item.
- Try to find out more by looking through the photos and case studies in the Box.
- Complete the table below.

Illustration	Summary of findings

How do objects help in the study of history?

What can an object tell you about the person who used it? Give an example.