

Australian War Memorial

Australian Tourism Awards
Major Tourist Attraction
HALL OF FAME

MEDIA ALERT

Media Arrangements for National Remembrance Day Ceremony

The Australian War Memorial will host Australia's National Remembrance Day Ceremony on Tuesday 11 November commencing at 10.15am.

Parking Permits Now Available

Media are eligible for reserved parking. Parking permits will be strictly limited and will be issued on a first-come basis. Carpooling is encouraged. Only media with parking permits will be permitted through road closures. Please email media@awm.gov.au .

National Remembrance Day Ceremony

Media should arrive by 10am, for pre-set positions on the Parade Ground, adjacent to the Stone of Remembrance. Media are requested to be respectful of the ceremony, and remain still during the Last Post, Minute's Silence and Rouse.

OB vans are welcome to the Remembrance Day ceremony with prior arrangement. A sound split will be available as microphones are not allowed on the lectern.

Road closures

Road closures will apply from 6.30am – 1pm and limited parking is available. Media assistance in advising the local public is appreciated.

Historical Film and Photographs

The Australian War Memorial can supply archival film, photographs and sound (production fees may apply for film and sound) for Remembrance Day features. Please limit photograph requests to 5 images per news item. TODAY is the last day for requests. Please search the collection at <http://cas.awm.gov.au/> and email the ID number to media@awm.gov.au .

Background information, editorial and historic images are also available in the media download centre.

Interviews

Pre-recorded and live interviews are available with Memorial historians and curators. Interview opportunities during the ceremony will be limited.

Further information:

Leigh Harris (02) 6243 4575 0409 600 038 media@awm.gov.au
6 November 2008