

MEDIA ALERT

Trooper Donaldson VC On Display

The Australian War Memorial will display the Victoria Cross awarded to Trooper Mark Donaldson VC in the Conflicts 1945 to today galleries from 11am tomorrow morning.

The display will be located in the Afghanistan section of the Conflicts 1945 to today galleries which have been acclaimed by the general public. Ultimately, it will be displayed in the Hall of Valour.

Once Trooper Donaldson's Victoria Cross is on display, there will be 60 Australian and two British Victoria Crosses displayed at the Australian War Memorial; this is the largest public collection in the world.

What:	Display of Trooper Donaldson's Victoria Cross
Where:	Conflicts 1945 to today galleries Entry via Security Entrance behind HMAS Brisbane Australian War Memorial Treloar Crescent Campbell ACT
When:	11am
Photo opps:	Victoria Cross in display case Please bring sufficient lighting and extension cords.
Interviews:	Available with Memorial historians and curators. Please note: Trooper Donaldson VC will not be in attendance.
Parking:	Available in the executive carpark, behind the Administration Building

Further information:

Leigh Harris (02) 6243 4575 0409 600 038 media@awm.gov.au
12 February 2009