

MEDIA ALERT

NAIDOC Collection Presentations

Public presentations showcasing the Australian War Memorial's Indigenous collection will be held next week.

The Indigenous Collection Highlights presentation will be followed by a short tour of the galleries, showcasing the Memorial's rich and diverse collection of objects directly relating to Indigenous Australians who have served within the Australian Defence Force.

Presented by Indigenous staff member and Assistant Curator, Garth O'Connell, who has recently returned from active service with the Australian Army, this is sure to be an engaging activity for NAIDOC Week.

The free 90 minute presentations will take place in the BAE Systems Theatre on Monday 6 and Wednesday 8 July at 11am.

What:	Indigenous Collection Highlights Free public talks during NAIDOC Week
Where:	BAE Systems Theatre Australian War Memorial Treloar Crescent Campbell ACT
When:	11am Monday 6 July Wednesday 8 July
Interviews:	Garth O'Connell, Assistant Curator

Further information:

Leigh Harris (02) 6243 4575 0409 600 038 media@awm.gov.au
3 July 2009