

Researching Australian military service Australian Flying Corps (AFC)

Nominal Rolls

- Many names will be listed on the First World War Nominal Roll, <http://www.awm.gov.au/nominalrolls/ww1/>.
- The First World War Embarkation Roll, <http://www.awm.gov.au/nominalrolls/ww1/embarkation/index.asp>, lists those who embarked from Australia as members of the AFC.

Personal service records

First World War service records are held by the National Archives of Australia. For information regarding viewing or obtaining copies of these records please visit the National Archives information page Australian Service Records from World War I, <http://www.naa.gov.au/collection/explore/defence/service-records/army-wwi.aspx>.

If a soldier saw service in both the First and the Second World Wars, the record has usually been amalgamated in the Second World War service record.

Those who died while serving

The Roll of Honour, <http://www.awm.gov.au/roh/>, records the names of service men and women who died during or as a result of service with Australian military forces. The Roll of Honour introduction provides detailed information about Roll of Honour eligibility, <http://www.awm.gov.au/roh/intro.asp#eligibility>.

The Commemorative Roll, <http://www.awm.gov.au/croll/> commemorates Australians who died during or as a result of wars or warlike operations in which Australians have been on active service but who were not eligible for inclusion on the Roll of Honour. The Commemorative Roll introduction provides detailed information about Commemorative Roll eligibility, <http://www.awm.gov.au/croll/intro.asp#eligibility>.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission's Debt of Honour register, http://www.cwgc.org/debt_of_honour.asp, lists all British Commonwealth soldiers who died in the First and Second World wars only. The register provides details about where the individual is buried

Some AFC casualty files (deaths and injuries) are held in Official records AWM25 171/7 - AWM25 171/10.

Printed resources
