

Suggested text for plaque - Lone Pine seedlings

[very basic]

An Aleppo pine (Pinus halepensis) propagated from seeds collected from the Lone Pine Tree in the grounds of the Australian War Memorial, Canberra.

[somewhat fuller]

An Aleppo pine (Pinus halepensis) propagated from seeds collected from the Lone Pine Tree planted in the grounds of the Australian War Memorial, Canberra, by HRH Prince Henry, Duke of Gloucester, on 24 October 1934.

[long version]

An Aleppo pine (Pinus halepensis) propagated from seeds collected from the Lone Pine Tree planted in the grounds of the Australian War Memorial, Canberra, by HRH Prince Henry, Duke of Gloucester, on 24 October 1934.

The original sapling was donated to the Memorial by the mother of an Australian soldier killed during the attack on Lone Pine, Gallipoli, in August 1915. Another of her sons had visited the site shortly after the battle and retrieved a pine cone from one of the logs used by the Turks as overhead cover for their trenches.