

Freedom of Information Disclosure Log

The Australian War Memorial is required under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 s 11C to publish a disclosure log on its website. The disclosure log lists information which has been released in response to an FOI access request. This requirement has applied since 1 May 2011.

The disclosure log requirement does not apply to:

- Personal information about any person if publication of that information would be 'unreasonable'
- Information about business, commercial, financial or professional affairs of any person if publication of that information would be 'unreasonable'
- Other information covered by a determination made by the Australian Information Commissioner if publication of that information would be 'unreasonable'
- Any information if it is not reasonably practicable to publish the information because of the extent of modifications that would need to be made to delete the information listed in the above dot points.

The information described in this register has been released by the Australian War Memorial under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 and is available for public access.

A link is provided if the information can be downloaded from this website or another website.

Information that is not available on a website may be obtained by writing to GPO Box 345, Canberra City, ACT, 2601. A charge may be imposed to reimburse the Australian War Memorial for the cost incurred in copying or reproducing the information or sending it to you. There will be no charge for the time spent by the Australian War Memorial in processing the FOI request that led to this information being made available. You will be notified if any charge is payable and required to be pay the charge before the information is provided.
