	50th, Battn.	2389.	① Private. Jorgen Christian JENSEN.	At NOREUIL on 2nd April, 1917, this man took charge of five men and attacked a barricade behind which were 40/50 Germans with a Machine Gun. One of his men shot down the German gunner. Jensen who is a Dane then rushed the whole post singlehanded and threw a bomb in. He had still a bomb in one hand taking another from his pocket he drew the pin with his teeth. Threatening them with two bombs he called on them in German to surrender & bluffed them they were surrounded by Australians. The enemy dropped their rifles and gave in. Jensen then sent a German to tell another enemy party who were fighting our Stokes Gun to surrender and they too gave in. A different party of our men then saw these Germans for the first time and began firing on them. At considerable risk, Jensen then stood up on the barricade and waved his helmet, and he then sent the german prisoners back to our line. under an escort of our lightly wounded men. in Later on Jensen was wounded while mopping up the village.	W.
