Nominal Rolls

The Nominal Roll of Vietnam Veterans [www.vietnamroll.gov.au/] was prepared by the Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA). The roll contains information from the Service records of more than 60,000 military members who served during the Vietnam War. It also contains the names of more than 1,600 Australian civilians who had been awarded or were eligible to receive the Vietnam Logistics and Support Medal.

Personal service records

Service records of those who served with Australian forces are held by the National Archives of Australia. You can apply to the National Archives for copies of personal service records [www.naa.gov.au/collection/explore/defence/service-records/army-after.aspx].

Those who died while serving

The Roll of Honour [www.awm.gov.au/research/people/roll_of_honour/] records the names of service men and women who died during or as a result of service with Australian military forces.
