Hymn
O valiant hearts
O valiant hearts who to your glory came
Through dust of conflict and through battle flame;
Tranquil you lie, your knightly virtue proved,
Your memory hallowed in the land you loved.

Proudly you gathered, rank on rank, to war
As who had heard God’s message from afar;
All you had hoped for, all you had, you gave,
To save mankind – yourselves you scorned to save.

Splendid you passed, the great surrender made;
Into the light that nevermore shall fade;
Deep your contentment in that blest abode,
Who wait the last clear trumpet call of God.
Anzac Dedication

Chaplain Garry Hooper, Royal Australian Air Force

At this hour, on this day, 104 years ago, the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps, at Gallipoli, made immortal the name of Anzac and established an imperishable tradition of selfless service, of devotion to duty, and of fighting for all that is best in human relationships.

We who are gathered here today in this dawn vigil remember with gratitude the men and women who have given, and are still giving, in our Armed and Supporting Services, all that is theirs to give, in order that the world may be a nobler place in which to live.

And with them, we remember those left behind to bear the sorrow of their loss.

Let us therefore dedicate ourselves to taking up the burdens of the fallen and, with the same high courage and steadfastness with which they went into battle, set our hands to the tasks they left unfinished. Let us dedicate ourselves to the service of the ideals for which they died. Let us, with God’s help, give our utmost to make the world what they would have wished it to be, a better and happier place for all of its people, through whatever means are open to us.
Laying of wreaths

Mr John King, President, ACT Branch RSL, and Air Vice-Marshal Tony Davies MNZM, Vice Chief of the New Zealand Defence Force, will place wreaths on the Stone of Remembrance, symbolising the unity of Anzac.

The Lament will be played by Detective Sergeant Stephen Ladd, Australian Federal Police.

Prayers of commemoration
Chaplain Garry Hooper, Royal Australian Air Force

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom,
And the power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.
Commemorative Address
Corporal Mark Donaldson VC

The Ode
Mr John King, President, ACT Branch RSL

_They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them._

All repeat:
_We will remember them._

The Last Post

One minute’s silence
_Lest we forget._

All repeat:
_Lest we forget._

Hymn

O God, our help in ages past

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

Benediction

Chaplain Garry Hooper, Royal Australian Air Force
The National Anthem

Advance Australia fair

Australians all let us rejoice,
For we are young and free;
We've golden soil and wealth for toil;
Our home is girt by sea;
Our land abounds in nature’s gifts
Of beauty rich and rare;
In history’s page, let every stage
Advance Australia fair.

In joyful strains then let us sing,
Advance Australia fair.

Beneath our radiant Southern Cross
We’ll toil with hearts and hands;
To make this Commonwealth of ours
Renowned of all the lands;
For those who’ve come across the seas
We’ve boundless plains to share;
With courage lets us all combine
To advance Australia fair.

In joyful strains then let us sing
Advance Australia fair.

What these men did nothing can alter now. The good and the bad, the greatness and the smallness of their story ... It rises ... it will always rise, above the mists of ages, a monument to great-hearted men; and, for their nation, a possession for ever.
